Ex-Speaker Polk of Tennessee.
TUNE—"Dandy Jim of Caroline"
Come listen Whigs and Locos all, Your kind attention here I call, And mark the burthen of the glee, Ex-Speaker Polk of Tennessee— But hark! the People rising say, He's not the man to conquer Clay, This is the substance of their rhyme, "Clay first, Clay last, Clay all the time."

Polk's choice occasioned some surprise, Good Democrats rolled up their eyes, Our Candidate, pray, who is he? Why James "R. Polk of Tennessee— But hark! &c.

But soon their vast excitement o'er, They see, what ne'er was seen before, The best selection that could be, Ex-Speaker Polk of Tennessee— But hark! &c.

And then commences nous verrons To make enthusiasm strong, Uphold, ye Loco clique, says he, Ex-Speaker Polk of Tennessee— But hark! &c.

Fall down before a better man Than even little Matty Van, Buchanan too must bow the knee To Ex-Speaker Polk of Tennessee— But hark! &c.

Now, not content with this display, They steal John Tyler's protege, Annexing Texas, as you see, To James K. Polk of Tennessee— But hark! &c.

Though now a Champion of Free Trade, Once upon a time a vote you made, To tax our coffee and our tea, Ex-Speaker Polk of Tennessee— But hark! &c.

When last you took the field with Jones, You heard the People's angry tones, A more indignant note you'll hear, Before November's idea appear— For hark! the People rising say, Their highest hope is Harry Clay, This is the substance of their rhyme, "Clay first, Clay last, Clay all the time."

"So was the name blazoned on the Loco Foco banners when first announced.

The "Harmonious Democracy."

From the Globe of Thursday Evening.
A CARD—My attention has been called to Mr Aaron V. Brown's statement on the floor of the House of Representatives, in which he disclaims the vicarious character attributed to him in the affair of Gen Jackson's letter, and the conversation with myself, and in which he says "the conversation changed to fall on annexation." This is a great mistake. There was no chance about it. Mr Brown accosted me coming down the steps of the Capitol, and I returned his salutation with entire civility; when he immediately began with glad to see me—wanted to see me—and commenced a talk upon Texas, as a thing of premeditation, and the evident cause of his wishing to see me. I, seeing the Texas movement then, as I see it now—a scheme, on the part of some of its movers, to dissolve the Union—on the part of some others, as an intrigue for the Presidency—and on the part of others, (I only speak of prime movers, not the millions who follow,) as a land speculation and a job in scrip—answered abruptly and warmly—he may tell what. But I never attributed to Mr Brown any other agency in the movement than the vicarious interpellation above referred to; and as to his and my Van Burenism being the same thing, I must beg to be excused. I knew that his would evaporate when and where it did, and said so to some friends, and I knew that mine would stand any test. The General Jackson letter always appeared to me to have been vicariously obtained; and nothing that Mr Brown has now said impairs, in the slightest degree, that first belief.

THOMAS H. BENTON. SENATE CHAMBER, June 13.

"Sinking in Favor."

From the Washington Correspondent of the Phil. Chronicle

As you will be advised before this, the Texas treaty has been killed in the Senate, it having received only 16 votes, among which I regret, for the honor of the peace-loving and faith-observing State of Wm Penn, are to be found the names of Messrs Buchanan and Sturgeon. Mr Buchanan has never shown more of his characteristic want of moral courage, than in the support of this infamous treaty—a treaty, which if ratified by the Senate, would have made the name of this nation a by word and reproach among all the civilized communities of the world.

Mr Polk's nomination seems to be sinking in favor. Letters from Pennsylvania and New York represent the loss of these two States inevitable to the Democratic party in consequence of the hostility of Mr Polk to the Protective policy. Mr Dallas's revolutionary opinions in his celebrated Bradford county letter, are working great harm to the Democratic party. Of Mr Clay's election, I do not think there can be any doubt whatever. Had Mr Van Buren and Col Johnson been nominated, Mr Clay's election would have been doubtful, with Polk and Dallas as his competitors, he will not, from present appearances, have much difficulty in obtaining an easy victory.

The Way to Throttle a Loco Foco Slander.

The Xenia Torchlight suggests an excellent plan for silencing every slanderer, who repeats the base lies of "bargain and sale," against Henry Clay. This is the plan: "Tell him that when the charge had been fully made before the American people, and all the evidence adduced that can be adduced in support of it, Mr Clay was nominated to the Senate for Secretary of State, and confirmed by an overwhelming vote, and that among the Senators who voted in favor of his confirmation were Thomas H. Benton and Martin Van Buren."

A Scene in the House.

Mr Peyton said several pithy and pointed things, during his speech in the House on Wednesday last. In reply to some charges made against the Whigs by Dr Duncan, he picked out a dozen or two leaders of the Loco Foco party, and held them up to the public eye, in any but a favorable point of view. In the course of his remarks, this scene occurred, as reported in the National Intelligencer

"Another very distinguished gentleman in the Democratic ranks, and now, he believed, a prominent member of Congress—one Charles Jared Ingersoll—had declared that, had he been capable of reflection in the days of the Revolution, he would have been a Tory. That gentleman was most courteous in his deportment, and had always treated Mr P. with the utmost personal kindness. He meant him no offence or injury; and if the assertion he had now made as his was incorrect, he (Mr P.) would instantly take it back. The gentleman was present and could deny it if it was untrue. [Mr P. retained his seat.] Mr P. next quoted a very fiery article indeed, from the pen of J. H. Prentiss, a Van Buren member of Congress. This gentleman declared it gave him infinite pleasure to be able to announce (in his paper) the triumph of Federalism. Was he a Democrat? Then came William Cullen Bryant, the author of a poetical eulogy (of no very flattering kind, as it seemed) on Thomas Jefferson. (Mr P. quoted from this poem, a sort of mock heroic.) Now, then, he would again inquire where was Federalism to be found? He thought he had placed it on the right side of the party dividing line.

[Mr Ingersoll here asking the loan of the book from which the above quotations had been made, Mr P. replied, 'Take good care of it, and do not derange the contents, it is an excellent magazine of Whig ammunition, and I mean to draw on it for some missiles, I hope, to hurl at the polk stalks of Tennessee.'

The Harmonious Loco Polk Democracy.

A Blow upon the Loco Foco about Muhlenberg.
There was a Loco Foco ratification meeting at Harrisburg on Tuesday evening, which appears to have been a rich specimen of Harmony. The Clay Bugle speaking of the string of resolutions offered, says that they were all passed with the exception of one lauding Mr Muhlenberg, and pledging the Locofocery of the Keystone to his support, the passage of which was warmly opposed by several very influential and respectable gentlemen. Here commenced a scene that beggars description, in which the whole caravan of Locofocos took part, and the hyena nature of the "harmonious democracy" was most strikingly exhibited. Those who attempted to speak on either side were cried and hooted down, but Muhlenberg's friends having the majority, the difficulty was temporarily settled by the application of PHYSICAL FORCE, and one of the most independent of the disaffected was actually laid hold of and dragged into the street, where a regular pitched battle took place between the belligerent Polkites, who poked it into each other after the most approved 'democratic' fashion.

The torch of discord having lit, the flame was fanned by the proposition of a couple of incendiary resolutions, expressing thanks to John Tyler for his course on the Texas question, and of confidence in the integrity and sterling democracy of David R. Porter! These resolutions were very summarily voted down, when the meeting having by this time worked itself into a terrible stew, it was thought best to adjourn with whole bones and bloodless noses, and leave the settlement of the difficulties for some future occasion.

Mr Benton.

The Washington Spectator, a Polk and Dallas, Texas and Free Trade organ in Washington, thus speaks of Mr Benton and the Texas Treaty, which the Senate rejected.

"It is not the rejection of the Treaty only that occasions us regret. There are circumstances and considerations connected with that fatal act, scarcely less to be deprecated than the act itself—and which will add to the mortification which every republican in the land must feel for its rejection. And on the circumstances is, that seven of the thirty-five Senators who voted against the Treaty, are members of the Democratic party.

Col Benton has done more to defeat the Treaty than perhaps all others put together. We hold him responsible for that defeat. The country will hold him responsible for it. The patriotic freemen of his own noble and beautiful Missouri will hold him to a rigid and fearful responsibility.

He has voluntarily, and in the face of the whole country, cut himself loose from the Democratic party. He is now fully and fairly standing in the Whig ranks. He is, in truth, the head of the new coalition."

Great Berkshires.

In looking over the list of premiums awarded at the late meeting of the Rhode Island Agricultural Society, we noticed the following: "Messrs A & W Sprague sent to the show two very fat pigs, about two and a half years old, supposed to be nearly pure Berkshires—These animals weigh about twelve hundred lbs each, alive."—Albany Cultivator.

The following is the last grand effort of transcendentalism. It is a luminous rendering of the vulgar and common place term of "clear out" by calling into action your quiescent motive power, and transferring your material elements which compose your terrestrial organization to some other portion of the mundane sphere."

Texas Patriotism.

The editor of the Jonesboro' Whig, writing from Washington, says that the zeal of the Richmond Enquirer in the cause of Texas is not a little strengthened by the fact that the editor owns five thousand dollars worth of land in that interesting country, that his son is a creditor of the Texas Government to the amount of thirteen thousand dollars, and that his son in law owns an estate of two hundred thousand dollars in Texas. [Providence Journal]

Harmony How the Nominations take.

The hiring presses would fain make the people believe that the Baltimore nominations are just the thing for success. It looks however, like hard up-hill work. Major Noah, one of the old satchmen in Tammany Hall politics, counsels his old associates on the disgrace and division they brought upon the party in nominating James K. Polk. We make some little extracts as specimens of what the real feeling is among the rank and file of the party. Straws show how the wind blows.

"We Have been Sold for Texas."

The office of President of the United States has been put up by southern democrats at auction, and the highest bidder for immediate annexation has received the nomination.

"No matter what may have been the sacrifices of national honor—of peace—of safety—of prosperity—the "golden opportunity" must be seized upon to chief Texas, and thus pave the way for a southern confederacy to gratify the unchastened ambition to southern and south western politicians, who heretofore have themselves condemned the measures in every possible shape."

"For this he (Mr Van Buren) has been sacrificed by his political friends; the express wishes of the Democratic party throughout the Union disregarded, and that party in the great and patriotic State of New York insulted in the person of her favorite candidate."

"We cannot rally the Democratic party throughout the Union, to support a candidate for the Presidency, pledged to immediate annexation. The north, the east, a great portion of the West, and part of the south also, are against that ill-advised measure."

"Mr Clay and Mr Van Buren have long been before the people, as the candidates of their party—Mr Clay, with fidelity and unanimity, has been nominated by the Whig convention, whilst the Democratic convention have sacrificed the Democratic candidate, and divided and distracted the party, and in this position we now stand. Against Mr Clay, the experienced and admitted talent to Mr Van Buren, backed by the entire power of the democratic party would have presented a close and fearful struggle. What chance do we stand with a third-rate man, against a candidate of the force and conceded popularity of Henry Clay? We go into the contest also fettered and cramped with immediate annexation—our people particularly in this great State, dispirited and broken down."

"They cannot forget the palmy days of the democracy, when Henry Clay broke bread and ate salt with us in our wigwam, and we were proud of the advocate of our principles and the eloquent supporter of the best interest of our country. The remembrance of these times and the result of the present nomination will give Henry Clay many democratic votes, while it will beyond a doubt keep many old men of that party from the polls in November next. We have much to say hereafter, on this subject."

These things show the real feeling which is prevailing in some portions or fragment of the Democracy, and let the people see the troubles that are stirring deeply among those who feel that they "have been sold for Texas."

Loco Foco Compliments.

The following complimentary notice of Col Benton, &c. is from the Philadelphia (Loco Foco) Mercury, a red-hot Texas paper, and one entirely opposed to the "mutilation of our Western rivers," and in favor of uniting countries "having a cotermious boundary."

BENTON'S ANNEXATION BILL.—The friends of Annexation in Congress will unanimously oppose the stupid anti-republican project of Thomas Hamburg Benton. There is but little hope that any thing can now be done to save Texas to this country. The Richmond Enquirer stamps this bill "a disgraceful trick and humbug," and represents Mr Benton as the agent of the Whig party in offering it. The wonder is that a provision was not inserted to obtain the consent of Great Britain.

Mr Benton must find himself in very agreeable company in supporting the 'Polk and Texas' ticket.

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE—Boston

This is a weekly publication, the fifth number of which has reached us, published in Boston and designed to supply the reading public, at a cheap rate, with the cream of Foreign and Domestic Literature. It has the solid staidness of the European Quaterlies combined with the attractive sparkling of the British and American monthlies, and seasoned with the wit and frolic-someness of the weekly and other periodical publications. From the whole field of English literature it will gather its harvest, and having "winnowed the wheat from the chaff" will provide instruction and entertainment for all.

The numbers already published are an excellent nest of the elevated character and pleasant companionship of the work, and give to the enterprising a highly favorable reputation. We most heartily recommended the work to our readers, and the business is so arranged that our city friends, and those doing business here, can obtain copies, in single numbers and in volumes, at our Book stores as fast as they appear. Each number contains sixty odd handsomely printed pages and contains as much matter as an ordinary duodecimo volume and is sold for 15 cents.

If we are indebted to Wm. Swanwick & Co for the perusal of the third number and to the publishers for the fourth and fifth numbers.

FOURTH OF JULY.
WHIG CELEBRATION AT BLUEHILL.
THE Whigs of Bluehill will celebrate the approaching Anniversary of the birth of our National Independence on the Fourth of July next.
An Oration will be delivered by Gov. KENT, and a FREE COLLATION will be furnished for the occasion for all who may choose to attend.
A cordial invitation is extended to the people in all the towns in the county to attend and join with the whigs of Bluehill in celebrating this great National Jubilee.
Come one, come all, of whatever party, as ample provision will be made for all who may attend.
Per order of the Committee of Arrangements.
Bluehill, June 18, 1844.

SEE FIRST PAGE.
Whigs of Bangor!
There will be a Caucus of the Whigs of Bangor at the City Hall this evening, for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the State Convention. Let every whig be present on the occasion, as the objects of the meeting are important, and the meeting itself will be one of much interest.

The Mercury professes to see no difference between the assumption of the State debts by the General Government, and the distribution of the proceeds of the public lands among the States, which, together with the continuance of the Protective policy, will enable the people of the indebted States to tax themselves and thus discharge those debts. We do.
The Mercury will perhaps best understand us by referring to its position regarding Texas. In this case the Mercury is willing the United States should assume the debts of Texas because it supposes that Texas can give an equivalent in her public lands. Now we consider the public lands of the United States as the rightful property of all the States. The proceeds of its sale being thrown into the National Treasury causes fluctuations and evils in our revenue system, and introduces disturbing forces in the business of the people. By distributing the proceeds of the public lands among the States they get only what belongs to them, since the object for which these lands were ceded has been accomplished. We would have the general government assume the debts of the States, and the States even with this land in possession and trust.

We do not like that the Mercury should attempt to wire-draw our language into a shape never intended by us, in order to charge us with a willingness to have the government assume the debts of the States, in offset to its willingness to have the debts of a foreign government assumed.
Our position is simply this:—
No assumption of State debts by the General Government with or without an equivalent.—
Let the government distribute the proceeds of the public lands among the several States to whom it rightfully belongs, and because it is not needed in the National Treasury. Let the industry of the country be protected.
This policy on the part of the general government, will encourage the people of the States to tax themselves in a sufficient sum to pay promptly the interest on their public debt and to gradually reduce the principal.
Is this assuming the debts?

Whig State Convention. Military Escort from the East.
This Convention will undoubtedly be the largest that has ever assembled in Maine on any occasion. The delegations from this vicinity and the East that will leave this city on Tuesday morning in the Charter Oak will be accompanied by one of the best military companies in the State, the Bangor City Greys, and the Bangor Brass Band. The number that will attend the Convention from this city will be large. The excursion will be one of pleasant excitement even as a matter of mere pleasure, and of deep interest to all interested in the great objects of the Convention. The whigs of the western part of the State have engaged special conveyance by steam boat in addition to the regular line. The East will turn out in large numbers. The whigs of good old substantial Kennebec the back bone of the State will be ready with open arms to receive all who may visit them with a hearty and cordial welcome. Let as many as can attend this great gathering of the patriots of the State, and as our friends of the Portland Advertiser have pleasantly said, "let it be like a central fire, at which we shall all get warmed, and light our torches to bear home again to kindle and spread the genial warmth in every quarter—so bright and so hot that it shall consume the cold and deadly Locofocoism, even to the extremities of the State."

Whig Celebration at Bluehill.
The whole hearted and generous whigs of Bluehill, will celebrate the approaching Fourth of July in an appropriate and imposing manner. They have engaged Governor Kent of this city, to deliver an Oration on the occasion, and are making arrangements for furnishing a free Colation to all who may choose to attend. As an invitation is extended to the people generally of the County of Hancock, and as Bluehill is near the centre of the county, there will probably be a larger collection of people than ever before assembled in that vicinity.

More Criticism!
The Gazette yesterday displayed its good taste, sweet temper, and transcendent learning in a criticism intended to be killing severe upon one of our Mechanics for misplacing a hyphen in a sign which he painted. The offence is undoubtedly a great one, and the most profound thanks of the Painter are unquestionably due to the Gazette man for his command to "send the School Master," for the purpose of correcting this error in placing a point, which was misplaced from the appearance the two-line sign addressed to the eye, rather than from a philosophical and accurate attention to the language.
The Gazette is great in small matters.

Dole's Portable Hay Press.
We have examined the structure and working of a compact Portable Hay Press made and we may say invented by Mr Edmund Dole, of this city. It occupies but little space, may be easily removed from barn to barn or town to town, only requires the labor of two men to press hay, and with which they can conveniently press, a bundle of about three hundred pounds, an hour.

The hay presses generally used in the country are such heavy structures and requiring so much time and labor in setting them up as to make them altogether unfit for being moved from place to place. It was to obviate this difficulty that Mr Dole undertook the making of his kind of press, and our judgment he has succeeded, and can furnish to our agricultural friends, for the sum of about $125, a compact, durable, portable and highly efficient hay press. The fluctuations in the price of hay make it quite desirable that in seasons of low prices our farmers should be able to press their hay in order to get it into small compass to make room for a new crop. It is convenient to have it pressed for all kinds of transportation and, indispensable when it is shipped. We feel no little pride that one of our mechanics has succeeded in getting up so desirable an article and we would recommend our friends to examine it as it will soon be in operation on Mr Dole's farm on the Levant road a short distance from Major Abbot's hotel.

We expect news from Europe by the mail to-night.
The weather for few days past has been hot as mustard. Vegetation is making rapid progress.

The Liberator of this week contains one of the most scorching reviews of the late Polk and Dallas Convention that we have ever read. Mr Garrison wields the pen of a ready writer.
[Lowell Courier.]

THE PHILADELPHIA U. S. GAZETTE HAS RECORDED accounts from Maracaibo up to the mouth of the Rio de la Plata, which state that the whole valley of the Rio de la Plata from Catata to Maracaibo, a distance of more than 600 miles, had been completely inundated, and the planters had in almost every instance abandoned their residences on the plantations, and taken themselves to the mountains. All the coffee plantations in this valley were overflowed, and the only feasible mode of cutting the cocoa was from boats.

CONGRESS.
In the Senate on Saturday, Mr Benton bro't forward a bill providing for a new and uniform mode of electing President and Vice President. His proposition is that each electoral district shall vote directly for President, and that the person who gets the majority of votes shall be elected. The bill was laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

The Texas question was again brought up and Mr McDuffie replied to Mr Benton's former speech. After a reply from Mr Benton the subject was laid on the table.
A Joint Resolution from the House was passed, providing for the transmission of the British mail, unbroken, from Boston to Canada.

James Greene, of New Jersey, rejected as Secretary of the Treasury, and George M. Bibb nominated and confirmed unanimously.
The nomination of N. P. Tallmadge, of N. Y., Gov. of Wisconsin; confirmed.
Mr Cushing and Fletcher Webster not acted upon.
The Appropriation bills were passed.

Narrow Escape from Death.
On Sunday, John Hertto, residing at Columbus, N. J., swallowed, in mistake for camphor, a quantity of corrosive sublimate. The mistake was immediately discovered, and a Thomaston physician in the neighborhood being called in, administered a dose of lobelia and the whites of eight or nine eggs, which had the desirable effect of relieving the patient in a short time, and placing him beyond danger. The whites of eggs, it is stated, is one of the surest antidotes for poison of that character, and may be given with the greatest assurance of success.

Fairness from an Unexpected Source.
Mr Leavitt, in a late number of the Emancipator, says in reference to duelling and Henry Clay:
"The Democratic papers of the North are circulating these things, and trying to gain by denouncing Mr Clay, although it is in evidence that their leaders had trained Gilley for the duel, in full expectation that he would kill Graves, instead of Graves killing him. And the whole party are out in full cry against Mr Clay for his duelling, when the world knows that the Democrats will give their votes for Vice President either to Mr King, or Stevenson—ALL DUELISTS!"

The Steamboat did not arrive until about ten o'clock last evening.

WRIGHT'S
Indian Vegetable Pills.
The True Character of Counterfeiters and Sellers of Counterfeit Medicines.

NO Medicine has been introduced to the American Public, whose virtues have been more cheerfully and universally acknowledged by its vast popularity, and extensive circulation, than WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE
PILLS.
To descant upon their various virtues at this late season would be a work of supererogation, since few who peruse this article will be found unacquainted with the widely circulated proofs of the real excellence of the Medicine, to which many will be ready to add the testimonials of their own experience. But if further proof were needed of the value of the remedy it might be found in the fact that no Medicine in the market has been so shamelessly and repeatedly counterfeited. Ignorant, envious, avaricious, and unprincipled men, have in different places, manufactured a spurious pill, bearing a superficial resemblance to the true article, but composed either of impotent or deleterious ingredients, which they have sought to foist upon the public as the veritable

Indian Vegetable Pills.
These fraudulent Swindlers could never pass off their vile wares upon the public but for the connivance and assistance of self-styled respectable Druggists, who, for the sake of a little "filthy lucre," lend themselves to the monstrous and unhallowed system of imposition. The counterfeiter of a popular medicine is more criminal than a coun-terfeiter of current money. The injuries done by the latter sink to nothing in comparison with those inflicted upon society by the former. We might paint him wringing the mite from the hard hand of invalid penury which is extended for the boon of health, and receives instead the vile drug that pro-tracts and aggravates disease, or to view it in its best aspect, suffers it to rage unchecked. How melancholy is the reflection that thousands may have been hurried to the grave by having a counterfeit substituted for the true Medicine; who but for the venal fraud might now be living in high health, the delight and hope of the social circle.
All classes are interested in putting down these vile Counterfeiters.

Let the Stores where they are sold be marked and Shunned.

Let the virtuous indignation of the community administer to all concerned in these unfair practices a general and withering rebuke.

CAUTION:
The public will please observe that the genuine Medicine has the following wording on the sides of the boxes.
PILLS."

—Indian Purgative—
OF THE NORTH AMERICAN COLLEGE OF HEALTH.

And also, around the border of a label will be found in small type, "Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1840, by William Wright, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania."

It will be further observed that the printed direction for using the Medicine, which accompanies each box, are also entered according to Act of Congress; and the same form will be found at the bottom of the first page.

The slightest attention to the above few particulars will serve to protect the purchaser from fraud, and save the lives of those who may otherwise be endangered by using a Counterfeit Medicine.

The public will also remember, that all those who sell the genuine Indian Vegetable Pills are provided with a certificate of Agency, signed by WILLIAM WRIGHT, Vice President Of the American College of Health and that Pedlars are never in any case allowed to sell the genuine article. All traveling Agents will be provided with a certificate of Agency as above described; and those who cannot show one will be known as base impostors.

The regularly appointed Agents can receive their supplies of the above popular pills, as heretofore, from the only Office and General Depot for the New England States

WHITWELL'S JAUNDICE
TEMPERANCE BITTERS
OR THE PEOPLE'S BEST REMEDY.

FOR the cure of Jaundice, Fever and Ague, Debility, Worms, etc. etc.

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS.
Do you wish to promote the health of your customers? Do you wish to confirm their good habits, and afford them the highest satisfaction?

Do you wish to make fifty per cent on your investment without the smallest risk? Then purchase at least one box of Whitwell's Temperance Bitters.

Evidence of the good qualities of this compound.
Dr. Hooper, in his Medical Dictionary, in allusion to a prominent ingredient in these Bitters, says—
"It has been found very effectual in restoring digestion, expelling flatulency, and removing costive-ness, so common in sedentary life."

Dr. Lettson, the most scientific physician in Europe, says, on the same page—"In hysterical affections, it affords more vigor and relief than any other article before known."

Dr. Bigelow, in the sequel to the U. U. Pharma-copoeia says, page 311, in allusion to the same article
It is one of the most valuable of the Bitter Tonics.
It has an invigorating effect on the stomach and bowels, and is peculiarly serviceable in dyspepsia."

These Bitters contain as large a proportion of the Extracts of SARSAPARILLA AND TOMATOES,
Assay bitters in the United States, and rank immeasurably above all others in existence for creating an appetite, reviving the spirits, and strengthening the whole system.

Why will you pay a high price for an article, when you can have every medicine suitable for such diseases to be found in the four quarters of the globe, for one quarter of the price. Orders have been received from nearly all sections of the United States, from British America, and the West Indies. This is not surprising, for to prefer any inflammatory Alcoholic compound to this mild and pleasant decoction, would prove the consumers far behind the age in good taste, good habits and even civilization.

Dealers will find it for their interest to purchase directly from the proprietors.
Sold at the low price of 25 cents per pint bottle, or $2 per dozen.

HOMOEOPATHY! HOMOEOPATHY!!
HOMOEOPATHIC PILLS, (OR A MEDICINE IN THE MINUTEST DOSES, WITH THE MOST BENEFICIAL RESULTS)

These Pills are about the size of the head of a common pin, and one pill is a full dose. They owe their power and efficacy entirely to the chemical combination of the most simple, well known and long tried articles.

COSTIVENESS IS THE PARENT OF MANY DIS-EASES.

And require some gentle cathartic medicine like the Homoeopathic Pills.

They are used for the same complaints as the Temperance Bitters, and should always be used together, the Pills being a gentle cathartic, and the Bitters the best tonic, or strengthener in existence.
The Pills are 25 cents per box, or $2 per dozen.
For sale by the proprietors,
J. P. WHITWELL & SON, Druggists.

Reader, should you want a bottle of Opodeldoc, for a sprain, cramp or rheumatism, be sure and buy WHITWELL'S, it is the original article, and is the cheapest in the end, and the best.

The Aromatic Snuff is a pleasant and sure cure for headache and catarrh. They are both recommended by the ablest medical professors in the U.

DR. TAYLOR'S BALSAM OF LIVERWORT.
PRICE REDUCED.

DR. TAYLOR'S Balsam of Liverwort, from 375 Bowery, New York—for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Catarrhs, Asthma, Softness of the Chest, Pain in the side and Breast, raising of Blood, Liver complaint, Bronchitis, and all those affections of Throat and Lungs which are a source of so much suffering and uneasiness, so often terminate in Consumption—this remedy is highly and justly distinguished. It is purely vegetable, mild and gentle in its effects upon the system, and can be taken in the most delicate cases, with safety as well as utility. Physicians, aware of its medicinal properties, and witnessing its effects even in extreme and in some instances apparently almost hopeless cases, often prescribe it in their practice, both as a palliative and a remedy, and with the Medical Faculty generally it has met with great approbation.

CONSUMPTION.—The following remarks were taken from the last number of the Medical Magazine:
"The surprising effect produced by the genuine
Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort, made at 375 Bowery, in consumptive cases, cannot fail exciting a deep and thrilling interest throughout the world.
We have so long considered this disease (consumption) incurable, that it is difficult to credit our sensations when we see persons, evidently consumptive, restored to health. Yet it is a fact of daily occurrence."

Certificates from the highest and most respectable sources, or persons who have been either greatly relieved by it, or entirely recovered from affections of the Lungs and Liver, could be furnished in abundance, but we insert only the following CERTIFICATE.

Liver Complaint and General Debility. I was given up by two physicians, and told to prepare for death. I was so weak I could not raise my hand to my head. I was in this low state, when a friend sent me a bottle of Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liver-wort, from 375 Bowery, and before I had used up the bottle, I was able to sit up in bed. By the further use I have completely regained my health.
GEO. WELLS, 23 John-st.

For a common cold and cough, this is one of the very best remedies ever discovered.
